EVENT PROGRAM

In Irgoli, the flowing of the year is determined by the rhythms of the work. The work longs for festival, for rest: Baronia's festivals came with music, chants, devotion, pray, conviviality, meeting other communities.

During two days, Irgoli will show its work and its art, as they flow with the year.

The visitor will be walked through the roads of the village by the enchantment of traditional music, by "cantos de sos pastores", by "cantos a tenore", by extempore poetry, and all the other genres which Sardinian musical culture is based on: guitar, accordion, "su ballu brincu" (traditional of Irgoli); and then the rhythm of the work, its devoutness through religious festivals and gathering visitors inside the village embrace.

SATURDAY 13th and SUNDAY 14th, JUNE
